

You Can Make a Difference!

Please Support Us With a Generous Contribution So That We Can Support Others

In its July, 2004 Peru Trek and Climb, Jason Edwards of Mountain Experience, joins forces with To Life!, a non-profit in New York State's capital region which offers free-of-charge education and support services to women and loved ones who are dealing with breast cancer.

Nola Royce, a 50-something breast cancer survivor and Program Coordinator at To Life!, will join Jason Edwards on this trek and climb. Nola, who is a retired school administrator, now splits her time between working at To Life! and mountain/rock/ice climbing and cycling.

Our Goal is to raise $10,000

To support To Life!'s programs and services, including education forums on medical issues, wellness classes such as Yoga, support groups and networking, mentoring for newly diagnosed clients, as well as a boutique in which women going through treatment can find wigs, hats and all sorts of mastectomy products.

You can participate by pledging a gift to To Life! in Nola's honor. Your gift will directly enhance the lives of hundreds of women and their families.
